

Associazione Villammare Film Festival – Golfo di Policastro
Via Irace - Vibonati (SA)

Short Film Contest - Regulation

1. Objectives

Villammare Film Festival is organized by Villammare Film Festival- Gulf of Policastro Association. The short film contest has been the beginning and the backbone of the Festival. Attention to short films is an opportunity to give space to experimental cinema, young talents, and to the evolution of film language. Villammare Film Festival wants to be an opportunity for filmmakers and an occasion to contribute to the cultural liveliness and promotion of the territory in the South of Salerno.

2. Place and date

Villammare Film Festival, arrived at its XVII edition, will take place in Villammare (SA) from 26 to 30 August 2018.

3. Admission Requirements

a) For the 2018 Edition two are the sections provided:

- Category "Free Theme";
- Category "Ecological and Environmental Themes".

This second section has been added in view of the importance of these issues today, of the aims of the Festival to promote the territory, and of the site of the event: an area of high environmental value in the heart of the Cilento, Vallo of Diano and Alburni National Park;

b) For both categories are admitted fiction, documentaries and any other kind of short film;

c) Short films of both sections must not have a duration higher than 15 minutes;

d) Participation is free. Each author can submit to the competition even more than one work and can participate in both categories (ad example: if you send two works, one on free theme and another on themes ecological, you can enroll them both, each in the reference section, and the same if you will have two or more of the same section);

e) However, only the short films considered worthy, on the basis of unquestionable judgment of the organization, will be accepted;

f) It prefers first and unpublished works or previews. However, will be also accepted works already presented and awarded to other competitions, but not to previous editions of Villammare Film Festival;

g) An indispensable requirement for participation in the competition is the authorization to process personal data in accordance with current legislation.

The Villammare Film Festival-Gulf of Policastro Association undertakes to treat the data in a lawful and fair manner for the sole purpose of the competition (informing the outcome of the selections, allowing the award of prizes, notifying news, deadlines and announcements of the forthcoming competitions, etc.). At any time after the conclusion of the XVII edition of the Villammare Film Festival, participants may request, in writing, to delete their data from the Association's archive.

4. Special Award “A short for Rotary-End Polio Now”

a) The Special Award "A short for Rotary- End Polio Now" was set up for the first time in the 2018 edition at the behest of the Rotary Club Sapri-Golfo di Policastro, represented by the pro tempore President Arch. Sergio Felicino.

b) The aim is to disseminate and promote, through a short film, Rotary actions, events, charities and values.

c) They will be able to compete for the Special Award, short films that in any genre (documentaries, fiction, etc.), tell the Rotary Clubs, their campaigns (such as the "End Polio Now" that for 20 years aims at the eradication of polio in the world), their events or organized initiatives, and, in the alternative, their values of solidarity and service or the five Rotary Actions, in particular the III and IV:

- J III: "The Action of Public Interest encourages every Rotarian to find ways to improve the quality of life of the people in the community in which he lives and to act for the benefit of the public interest";
- J - IV: "International Action encompasses the actions taken to expand the purpose of Rotary's humanitarian activities and to promote understanding and peace among peoples".

d) They will have priority for awarding the Prize short films that deal specifically with Rotary or related events. In the alternative, in the event that no short film with this theme will be received, the Rotary Club Sapri-Golfo di Policastro reserves the right to evaluate whether or not to award the prize to the "generalist" short films that will deal with topics similar to the five action lines of Rotary.

e) The jury that will award the Special Prize "A Short for the Rotary- End Polio Now" will be the artistic jury of the Villammare Film Festival integrated with the pro tempore president of the Rotary Club Sapri-Golfo di Policastro or with his delegate with power of veto.

f) The Special Award "A Short for the Rotary- End Polio Now" consists of 3000 euros. The author and the producer of the short winner of the Special Award will be obliged to include at the beginning of the short film the words "A Short for the Rotary- End Polio now" and in the end credits the possible single sponsor.

- g) The Rotary Club Sapri-Golfo di Policastro acquires the right to obtain a free copy of the work in digital format, to duplicate it and disseminate it on its institutional sites, during meetings or training events, at the club level, at the 2100 district level, and at international level.
- h) The Rotary Club Sapri-Golfo di Policastro reserves the right not to award the Special Prize if no short film is considered in line with the goals set at the basis of the agreement with the Villammare Film Festival.
- i) For all that is not specified in this paragraph and for the sending of the works, are valid the rules established in this regulation apply.
- j) To make the short film compete for the Special Award, tick the appropriate box on the entry form.

5. How to send the works

- a) Movies can be sent on DVD or via email in a downloadable link at servizi105tv@libero.it ;
- b) It is also possible to apply for short films using the Clickforfestivals platform at www.clickforfestivals.com. In this case, the organization does not assume responsibility for the relationship between the author of the short and the platform, which follows its own rules, independent from the Festival;
- c) The deadline for the submission of short films is June 30, 2018;
- d) All the works received will be kept in the Association's archives and will not be returned.
- e) The Villammare Film Festival – Golfo di Policastro Association assumes no responsibility if the videos arrive lost or damaged, and cannot be admitted to the competition. Please make sure the integrity of the DVD or that the mail has arrived and the link to download the movie works.
- f) The person who subscribes the entry form, so subscribing the film to the competition, assumes responsibility for being the legitimate representative, authorized by all those entitled to the work.

6. Admission to the competition

- a) To be admitted to the competition, you must complete the entry form in all parts and send it, with a copy of the short film, a synopsis, author's details, technical details of the movie and any other advertising material you want to add (photos, posters, etc.), to: Villammare Film Festival c/o 105 TV, Via Stazione Ferroviaria, 84070 - Villammare (SA) or by mail (preferable) to servizi105tv@libero.it with the link to download and view the movie;
- b) It is pleasing but not mandatory, sending trailers, backstage or short videos with comments or presentations of the film. They will be used during special TV programs about the Festival on air on 105 Tv, with the aim of presenting the works received and in competition or in any case for the promotion of the Festival and of the selected films;

c) Foreign language short films must be subtitled in Italian;

d) The choice to tick the box for the airing on television of short film is optional. If the box is cropped, the short, even if not selected at competition, can be included in specials and programs dedicated to Villammare Film Festival made by 105 TVs (local private tv) during the year. If the box is not ticked, in the case of short film selection, the author will be contacted by the organization to granting the release to broadcast the short film on 105 TV for the only evening of the Festival in which it will compete.

7. Selection of works and next steps

- a) The selection of the works will be an unquestionable judgment of the organization;
- b) Selected shorts will be screened in the first four evenings of Villammare Film Festival. Those chosen inexorably in these four evenings from the popular jury and the jury of quality, composed of competent personalities of the world of entertainment, will come to the last night and will be rediscovered in the square and live on 105 Tv for the winner's proclamation;
- c) The organization may decide to set up further categories to group short films based on their gender and number or to cancel the categorization if the number and the quality of the short films in the individual categories will not be judged sufficient. In this case, the best shorts will compete against one another without distinction of categories;
- d) The travel and subsistence expenses of the authors of short films or of those who wish to attend the Festival's evenings are responsible for the participants who will still be able to take advantage of special conventions and facilities that will be communicated in time;
- e) Due to the high number of participants, only the authors of the selected works will be notified of the outcome of the selection. Those wishing to have news on their film can phone at 0973/365848 or visit <http://www.villammarefilmfestival.it>

8. General Rules

- a) Applications for admission to the Festival imply acceptance of this regulation;
- b) It is the responsibility of producers, distributors or other subjects presenting the short film, to ensure they are legitimately authorized to enter the film at VFF;
- c) The Festival's organization will have the right to make a final decision on anything not specified in this regulation and reserves the right to make any changes or additions to this regulation, as it may require.